

2024 Mid-Atlantic Climate Change Education Conference

Abbreviated Agenda *all times in ET

Registered Conference attendees will receive a detailed schedule, including all the concurrent session options, the week before the conference

Day 1: Tuesday, June 25

1:00 pm	Welcome!
1:15 pm	Keynote: Anya Kamenetz Why Education Is Essential To Climate Action, and Vice Versa Climate is the most exciting and complex challenge in education. For educators, mobilizing for climate action starts with the heart.
2:00 pm	Concurrent Sessions 1 Participants will choose from a selection of presentations to attend
2:35 pm	Break
2:50 pm	Concurrent Sessions 2 Participants will choose from a selection of presentations to attend
3:30 pm	Ask the Climate Expert NOAA Climate Program Office Staff will join the MACCE-Community to answer your questions about climate science and solutions - Participants will be invited to submit questions
4:00 pm	Day 1 closes

Day 2: Wednesday, June 26

1:00 pm	Welcome!
1:15 pm	Climate Policy Development and Implementation Panel This panel session provides an opportunity for climate education policy experts to share their insights about the development and implementation of climate education policy
2:00 pm	Concurrent Sessions 1 Participants will choose from a selection of presentations to attend
2:35 pm	Break
2:50 pm	Concurrent Sessions 2 Participants will choose from a selection of presentations to attend
3:30 pm	Making Climate Learning Fun - Climate Trivia (there will be prizes!)
4:00 pm	Day 2 closes

Day 3: Thursday, June 27

1:00 pm	Welcome!
1:15 pm	Student Panel - What Does Climate Education Look Like? A panel of students from throughout the region will engage in a lively discussion about high quality climate education and what it does and does not look like
2:00 pm	Concurrent Unconference Sessions During Day 1 and 2 participants will submit and upvote conversation ideas for these sessions
2:35 pm	Break
2:50 pm	Concurrent Sessions 1 Participants will choose from a selection of presentations to attend
3:30 pm	Closing Remarks and Call to Action!
4:00 pm	Conference closes